From the Cincinnati Gazette, December 91 One of the most popular churches of cur city-the Sixth Street Methodist Protestant Church-yesterday presented the novel and imprecedented spectacle of having the gate that leads to its doors chained and padlock-What added interest to the appearance of things in that quarter was the assemblage in front of the gate of a dignified and rever ential looking body of men, seemingly thwarted in the performance of an important mission. After some deliberation they adourned to the George Street Methodist Nashwille and Chattanooga Ro Protestani Church, below Cutter, where the pastor of the Sixth Street Church, Reverend H. M. Sneed, was put upon trial, on the general charge of immorality. The following s the substance of the more serious specifi-Nuchville and Northwestern Railrand Leave Nashville
